Wintry Weather

Auckland is in the grip of a cold and chilly winter. The snow has been falling on the south, while the power has been failing in the north. On Monday June 12th the entire Auckland CBD was left without power from 8:30 in the morning till around 1pm in the afternoon. This did not deter the students from their study, they marched on with their work using the light of the sun. The weeks that have followed the power cut have been a real New Zealand winter, with clear sky's and refreshing frosts. This has been quite a shock for some of the students as they have up to now only experienced Auckland's mild temperatures.

One evening Zaine met Yuri at a disco. They fancied each other. To begin with Zaine chatted Yuri up. Next, Zaine rang Yuri up. He said "how are you? Can we meet sometime?" Yuri said "of course! You are my dream boy." Later, Zaine and Yuri met in the park and they fell in love. After that, they moved in together into a new flat. After a while Zaine and Yuri met each other's parents. A few weeks later they got married. After that Yuri had a few children. After a while Zaine and Yuri had a row about Yuri's affairs. Finally, they split up.

This story was written by members of the Pre-intermediate class. They are doing a unit on dating and how to ask people out.

The cause of all the trouble, a small earth wire that broke in the wind and crossed the cables going into Auckland city
