Forum

Exciting News!!!

There is now a forum available on the St George Web site. This is a place where students can ask questions about study, English, and New Zealand. This is a great way to practice written English. You can get to the forum by going to the home page www.stgeorge.ac.nz and then clicking on the link, Forum.

ANZAC Day

On April 25th New Zealand celebrated ANZAC Day. This is a day to remember all the Australian and New Zealand Soldiers that Have fought in battle and died. The day starts off with a Dawn service at the Auckland Domain War Memorial. At this service the soldiers that died are remembered and immortalized by the thoughts of the nation. It is traditional on this day to wear a poppy. This poppy is in memoriam of Flanders field where many soldiers were killed during WWI, Poppies grew where the soldiers lay. ANZAC Cookies made with Honey and oatmeal are also traditionally eaten on this day.
